

PRESS RELEASE NO. 3

FEBRUARY 2016

HIGH END® 2016 (5. - 8. MAY 2016)

ALL-ROUND SERVICE FOR VISITORS TO THE HIGH END 2016

Naturally, the focus of the fair is on presenting the entire spectrum of consumer electronics products, and it goes without saying that visitors can look at and listen to the industry's latest and best products from all over the world. At such a wide-ranging exhibition, maximum expertise and information are guaranteed.

But the HIGH END is more than just a product show, which is why we put so much time and attention into planning the accompanying events - because we want to make sure that our visitors' stay in Munich, as well as getting there and back, is as pleasant an experience as possible.

The HIGH END offers exhibitors and visitors a comprehensive package of services for arrival, accommodation, catering and departure. This includes among other things a fantastic all-inclusive travel offer to the HIGH END, a special programme with excursions for partners travelling with you, special hotel offers, a free bus shuttle with expert guides, free talks and training on the technology stage, live music every day of the fair and numerous music presentations by the exhibitors.

All-inclusive travel offer to the HIGH END in Munich

For the first time, visitors from North Rhine-Westphalia, the most populous state of Germany, can book either an all-inclusive trip to Munich for the HIGH END, or just the transfer. "Ascension Day in Munich with a visit to the HIGH END and side events" is the title of the package description by the Schütz travel agency from Dortmund, which is offering a trip for several days to the HIGH END in a state-of-the-art luxury coach. The offer includes four-star hotel accommodation, admission tickets, a catalogue, transfer to the fair and everything else you need for a pleasant visit to the capital of Bavaria, with pick-up points in Essen, Bochum, Dortmund, Hagen and Hamm. The package also includes a guided tour of Munich and a shopping trip to the outlet centre in Ingolstadt for those who are not really audiophile visitors to the fair. For details of this fantastic package, which we officially endorse, go to: www.HighEndSociety.de > HIGH END > Travel service
